RECORD-BREAKING GATHERING.

The Norris Rally, Monday Evening, Drew the Largest Audience Ever Assembled in the Temple Theatre.

The closing of Congressman G. W. Norris' campaign in the Fifth Nebraska district was celebrated in McCook, Monday evening, in a splendid manner. The event was scheduled for the Temple theatre, where a crowd approaching the 1,500 total greeted the home congressman. This was easily the greatest company ever gathered within the walls of that building, exceeding the Jeffries-Gotch crowd by several hundred. Standing room, even, was at a "premium."

Some fireworks, a short parade and much red light preceded the rally meeting in the Temple, the McCook band heading the march to the theatre.

The affair opened with music by the McCook band and by singing by the male quartette, both of which aroused much enthusiasm.

C. E. Eldred introduced John F. Cordeal, Republican nominee for state senator, who, after a short talk introduced the speaker of the evening, Hon. G. W. Norris.

We have not the space to attempt an account of the speech of Mr. Norris. It was, however, a concise, clear, instructive and convincing exposition of the history and substance of "insurgency." His audience was with him in heart and spirit as well as in person, and it is not overstating the fact to say that a more convincing speech has never been delivered in this city, giving as he did the patriotic aims and accomplishments of that little band of insurgents who opened a new chapter in American politics.

The crowd present and the vote of Tuesday constituted both a sentimental and practical endorsement which cannot fail of keenest appreciation by Mr. Norris, who has been backed by McCook and Red Willow county handsomely.

CORDEAL A WINNER.
Will be State Senator by a Thousand Majority.

Unofficial returns give John F. Cordeal of our city, Republican nominee for state senator, almost a thousand majority.

State Oil Inspector.

The Tribune congratulates Francis M. Colfer upon his advancement to the position of state oil inspector, to which he was appointed on Tuesday of this week by Governor Shallenberger. It is a clear recognition of merit and service well performed.

Mr. Colfer's chief, Mr. Mullen, was recently appointed to the position of attorney general of the state.

This new position of Mr. Colfer carries an increased salary, but best of all is the recognition of ability to perform the duties of the important office.

A SPLENDID VINDICATION.

Norris Carries the District by Four Thousand Majority.—Nebraska's Leading Progressive Receives the Unqualified Approval of His Constituents by an Overwhelming Majority at the Polls.

Unofficial returns, but of a reasonably accurate nature, place the majority of Congressman G. W. Norris of our city at the tremendous total of four thousand, a vote most highly gratifying to Congressman Norris and to his friends in this city and all over the district and state, as indicating in unmistakable terms the unqualified approval of the voters of the district of his course in congress during the last session, when insurgency was at high tide largely through his efforts in the fight for more truly representative government through the revision of the famous house rules.

The Tribune congratulates the congressman on this high expression which must be especially and supremely gratifying to him.

The Measure of Achievement

is not the size of one's income. That may be only the measure of one's extravagance.

The real Measure of Achievement is the DIFFERENCE between your income and your expenditures.

The best way to achieve a substantial margin, to get ahead with certainty, is to deposit REGULARLY, even though each deposit be small. Did you ever stop to consider that $10.00 deposited regularly, monthly, for ten years, exclusive of interest, would amount to $1,200.00?
